

Dr. Joanna Stith with “Listening for Life” presents:

Becoming a Love and Logic Parent

A five-week parent and educator training program designed by the Love and Logic Institute, Inc. This course is targeted for parents and educators working with children ages 3-16 and their families.

Participants will learn skills for:

1. Creating home environments that stimulate responsibility, resiliency, and academic achievement.
2. Preventing misbehavior.
3. Avoiding power struggles while setting limits.
4. Teaching character and responsibility through modeling and the application of logical consequences instead of punishment.
5. Teaching children healthy problem-solving skills.
6. Staying calm in stressful parenting situations.
7. Helping children become prepared to resist drugs, alcohol, violence, and other dangerous behaviors.
